MAURICIO POCHETTINO

"WE SHOWED CHARACTER TO COME FROM BEHIND IN OUR LAST TWO MATCHES, ALTHOUGH IT IS CLEAR THAT WE HAVE TO FIND DIFFERENT WAYS TO WIN"

Good evening and welcome back to Wembley. Saturday's FA Cup tie proved a challenging contest for us at Newport.

Credit to the home side, they put in a good performance, while our response in the final 30 minutes was enough to ensure we are still in the hat for the next round, as we look to take our second chance to advance now in the replay. We will welcome them next week and must be more positive to earn our place in round five.

It was our second successive away draw following the 1-1 scoreline at Southampton the previous weekend.

On balance it was probably a fair result at St Mary's as both teams had chances and could have won the game on another day.

These two games were played in tricky conditions for us and we need to learn from these situations. We showed character to come from behind in both matches, although it is clear that we have to find different ways to win.

A thank you to those of you who followed us on the road for those games. It is much appreciated by us and we are counting on you all to create a special atmosphere tonight as we welcome Manchester United and their manager Jose Mourinho.

United are a strong side on a good run and we fully expect a difficult contest this evening. They have quality in all areas of the pitch and we will need to be at our best from the first whistle.

We will approach the game with confidence. We have a good record here at Wembley and we can all be proud of the way we have adapted to make the national stadium our home. In our last match here against Everton we showed how dangerous we can be and I want a performance like that again this evening.

We have some exciting games ahead of us that we know will be tough, though also provide us with opportunities to make ground on our rivals in the league and to progress in the cup competitions. These are the sort of games we live for and the occasions that all players and fans want to be a part of.

Enjoy the game.

TRIO ON LOAN

Three of our young players have moved out on loan spells for the remainder of the 2017-18 season to further their experiences.

Cameron Carter-Vickers – who spent the first half of the campaign on loan at Sheffield United, where he made 18 appearances, scoring once – has joined Ipswich Town. The central defender, 20, is a product of our Academy and has made four first team appearances in our colours to date.

Cameron Carter-Vickers

Marcus Edwards

Attacking midfielder Marcus Edwards has also moved to the Championship, joining Norwich City on loan. The 19-year-old made his senior competitive debut as a substitute in our 5-0 EFL Cup third round win over Gillingham in September, 2016 and was a member of England's European Under-19 Championship squad in July last year.

Ryan Loft has joined League Two side Exeter City on loan until the end of the season. The Development Squad striker, 21, has played 12 times for us in the Premier League 2, Premier League International Cup and Checkatrade Trophy this season and scored in the latter competition against League Two side Luton Town in August.

He made his Football League debut for Stevenage last term and went on to make nine appearances for them in League Two.

Happy birthday Tony!

One of our oldest surviving former players celebrated his 85th birthday recently – and we were there to join in the celebrations!

Tony Marchi, part of our 1963 European Cup Winners' Cup-winning side and the only player to have been around the squad when we won the First Division in 1951 and 1961, received a personal letter from Mauricio Pochettino and a gift bag from the club – hand-delivered to his home in Maldon, Essex, by our legendary former captain and current Club Ambassador Gary Mabbutt.

A local boy born in Edmonton on January 21, 1933, Tony joined our youth ranks in 1948 and made his first team debut as a 17-year-old under Arthur Rowe in a 2-1 home defeat to Grimsby Town in April, 1950.

A midfielder by trade but versatile enough to play numerous roles over the course of his career, he was appointed captain in the mid-1950s.

After two years in Italy, where he played for Vicenza and Torino on loan from Juventus, Bill Nicholson personally flew out to bring him back to north London in 1959 and he gave us a further six years of tremendous service from that point on.

Tony made six appearances as we won the Double in 1961 before his crowning glory, a place in the starting line-up as we defeated Atletico Madrid 5-1 in Rotterdam in May, 1963, to become the first British team to lift a major European trophy.

"I was delighted to go to visit Tony on behalf of the club," said Gary. "He was a Spurs player for a combined total of 15 years and he had so many fascinating stories to tell from that period. He's a very humble gentleman who was obviously associated with the club during both our title wins so it was an absolute pleasure to spend time in the company of Tony and his family."

Gary conducted an in-depth interview with Tony in front of the Spurs TV cameras during his visit, learning about life at the club under Arthur Rowe, his unexpected transfer to Italy and his memories of Bill Nicholson's all-conquering side of the early-1960s. Watch out for Tony's fascinating tales on our club channels soon.

Alan Gilzean challenges United keeper Pat Dunne during our 5-1 win at the Lane in 1965

FIVE-STAR RATING

Andy Greeves tells a story from our vast history that has a link to our matchday opponents. This evening, he looks back on two high-scoring matches with Manchester United during the 1965-66 season

On October 16, 1965, reigning league champions Manchester United visited N17 for a match that will live long in the memory of those fortunate to be at White Hart Lane that day.

The Red Devils' starting line-up for the match, watched by a crowd of 58,051, included the so-called 'United Trinity' of George Best, Denis Law and Bobby Charlton. The trio proved to be a real thorn in our side during their illustrious careers with United, with Law (15 goals in 19 appearances v Spurs) and Charlton (15 goals in 38 appearances) scoring more goals against us than any club during their time at Old Trafford. Best meanwhile weighed in with seven strikes in 22 appearances for United in the fixture.

We boasted a fearsome strike force of our own at that time in Scottish international Alan Gilzean and our leading goal scorer of all-time, Jimmy Greaves. The 'G-Men', as they were known collectively, scored 399 goals between them in 819 appearances in our colours. The pair were accompanied in attack against United by Jimmy Robertson, Eddie Clayton and Neil Johnson – with all five forwards finding the back of the net that day!

It was Gilzean who gave us the lead after 25 minutes of the encounter, filmed by the BBC's Match of the Day cameras. The Scot slotted in from close range after Robertson's header had crashed back off the United goal frame at the Park Lane end.

Johnson doubled our advantage 13 minutes later, latching onto a fine through ball by Greaves and slotting a shot beyond the onrushing United goalkeeper Pat Dunne.

After the break, Greaves scored one of the finest goals in White Hart Lane's 118-year history. On the 58th minute, the forward collected a pass from Dave Mackay midway in the United half with his back to goal. He evaded the tackle of Billy Foulkes and swerved a number of other challenges before taking the ball around Dunne and slotting it into back of the empty net. "Oh beautiful football… what a great goal," declared Match of the Day commentator Kenneth Wolstenholme.

"For me, Jimmy Greaves was the greatest of all goalscorers," says Cliff Jones – a Spurs team-mate of the England striker throughout much of the 1960s. "Jim had the ability to go past players as well as being a phenomenal finisher. Unlike many top goalscorers, Jim was an all-round footballer and that's what made him the very best forward in my eyes.

"What makes me laugh is after scoring great goals like the one you've just mentioned, he wouldn't really celebrate. He'd just walk back to the halfway line, cool as you like!"

Two minutes after Greaves' wonder goal, Clayton struck a powerful shot from the edge of the penalty area that nestled in the bottom right-hand corner of Dunne's net. Charlton pulled a goal back for the visitors, with a magnificent long-range effort that gave our goalkeeper Pat Jennings absolutely no chance of stopping.

The England international's effort proved to be nothing more than a consolation and Robertson went on to complete a 5-1 victory for us with 13 minutes remaining.

Jimmy Greaves weaves through the United defence to score his wonder goal

Just over two months after our incredible home victory over United, the two sides met in the corresponding league fixture at Old Trafford in front of a crowd of 39,511. Sir Matt Busby's side were quick to seize the initiative in the game and led 3-0 by half-time thanks to goals from Charlton and Law, while Phil Beal put through his own net.

Jones gave us hope of a second-half comeback, beating Harry Gregg in the United goal. However, the home side went on to complete a 5-1 victory of their own with David Herd's 49th minute strike added to by Law's second of the afternoon nine minutes from time.

"For Spurs to beat Manchester United 5-1 then United to beat Spurs by the same score in the same season… well, that tells you all you need to know about that fixture!" said United's Scottish centre-forward Law. "The beauty of playing against Tottenham Hotspur was that win, lose or draw, you always knew you were in for a good footballing occasion. Both clubs, under the management of Bill Nicholson and Sir Matt Busby, were geared up to play good, attacking football… the way the game should be played."

The 1965-66 season perhaps was something of a disappointment for both ourselves and United in terms of league finishes. The Red Devils came fourth in the old Division One table having won the title the previous campaign. They were also beaten in the semi-final of both the European Cup and FA Cup. We ended up eighth in the division, while we suffered a fifth round FA Cup exit at the hands of Preston North End.

Throughout the season, there was certainly no shortage of excitement for the two clubs' supporters though. United scored five or more goals in four league matches, beating Leicester City 5-0, Northampton 6-2 and Aston Villa 6-1.

We were involved in a 5-5 draw with Villa at White Hart Lane on March 19, 1966, while we scored four goals in league victories over Leicester (4-2), Blackpool (4-0), Chelsea (4-2), Blackburn Rovers (4-0) and Fulham (4-3).

WORLD IN MOTION

A number of Spurs and Manchester United players featured in the England versus the 'Rest of the World' match, staged here at Wembley Stadium on October 23, 1963, to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the Football Association.

Our defender Maurice Norman, along with forwards Greaves and Bobby Smith, started the game for England alongside United's Charlton. Law meanwhile lined up in the Rest of the World side that featured fellow legends of the game such as Alfredo di Stéfano, Eusébio, Lev Yashin, Raymond Kopa and Francisco Gento.

After Southampton's Terry Paine opened the scoring midway through the second half of the match, Law equalised with eight minutes remaining. In the last seconds of the game, it was Greaves who popped up with England's winner in the first-known fixture between a single nation and a 'world' team.

Dele Alli has experienced mixed fortunes in his encounters against Manchester United so far throughout his career, but he's hoping this evening's match will be allocated a place in the 'good' category.

And if trends are anything to go by, the England international could help us have the upper-hand tonight since the home team has come out victorious in all six of his games against the Red Devils so far.

It all started for Dele in the opening weeks of the 2014-15 campaign, when he was still cutting his teeth in the professional game having just enjoyed a breakthrough season with hometown club MK Dons.

His side were handed a dream draw at home to Louis van Gaal's United side in the second round of the Capital One Cup, with the chance to make a name for themselves against illustrious Premier League opponents.

It may not have been a full-strength Manchester United team that took to the field at Stadium MK that night in August, 2014, but David De Gea was between the sticks and their strike-force was spearheaded by Danny Welbeck and Javier Hernandez, while Shinji Kagawa and Jonny Evans were also involved.

At the time, Dele was a highly-rated 18-year-old talent plying his trade in the lower leagues and on the radar of plenty of top clubs. He certainly enhanced his reputation against United as League One MK produced a superb display to knock their higher-ranked opponents out of the competition with a 4-0 victory, Dele very much to the fore in a fine all-round team performance.

It was a night he still fondly remembers and a match in which he felt he proved to himself that he had the credentials to make it at a higher level. Within six months he decided to put that to the test by signing for us…

"It was obviously a dream to play against such a big team and especially when you're in League One, you want to have those opportunities to test yourself against great players and one of the best teams in the Premier League," explained the 21-year-old.

"OBVIOUSLY I KNEW IT WOULD BE A HUGE CHANGE PLAYING IN THE TOP DIVISION EVERY WEEK BUT CONFIDENCE-WISE, THAT MK DONS GAME AGAINST UNITED HELPED ME MASSIVELY"

"To have Manchester United visit Stadium MK was fantastic for everyone connected with our club and gave us the chance to show to ourselves and to our fans that we could play at that level. It was a great result.

"Personally, I felt I was ready to make the step up before that game so you could say it was a marker for myself as I thought I did okay on the night and I felt I could cope with moving up to the Premier League.

"Obviously I knew it would be a huge change playing in the top division every week but confidence-wise, that game helped me massively.

"Of course, I wanted to make sure it was the right time to leave and that I went to the right place," he added.

"As I've said many times before, I felt Tottenham was exactly the right move and it has worked out really well."

Dele put pen to paper with us in February, 2015, before we loaned him back to MK for the remainder of the campaign. He joined up with us permanently that summer and enjoyed a full pre-season ahead of our Premier League opener against – yes, you guessed it – Manchester United.

He may only have come on for the closing stages, replacing Eric Dier during our 1-0 reverse at Old Trafford on August 8, 2015, but he was delighted to get that debut under his belt and, it would be fair to say, he hasn't looked back since.

"It's always nice to get your first game at a new club and it was a proud moment for me to appear in the Premier League for the first time," Dele continued.

Unfortunately, that scoreline away from home against the Red Devils has been a familiar one since Dele arrived at the Lane. We've lost our last three matches at Old Trafford by a solitary goal, but it's been a different story on our own enclosure.

Last season we brought the curtain down on White Hart Lane with a 2-1 win over United, with Dele commenting "it was an historic day for the club and it was great to be a part of it for all of us – players, staff and fans alike," while he was on target for the first time against tonight's opponents in April, 2016, opening the scoring and sparking a crazy spell in which we scored three goals in six minutes to romp to a 3-0 win.

But everything that has gone before for Dele in his encounters against United count for nothing this evening. It's a clean slate, a new game and time for him to make fresh memories.

With the race for the top four really starting to hot up, it does look like games between the sides in contention will be the deciding factor and, as we prepare to face United, Liverpool and Arsenal in our next three league matches, this is a crucial spell.

CAREER SO FAR

TEENAGE KICKS

Joined the MK Dons youth system aged 11, turning professional in July, 2013. Made his debut at the age of 16 in an FA Cup first round tie with Cambridge City on November 2, 2012, scoring in the replay 11 days later.

BREAKING THROUGH

Established himself at MK during 2013-14 and the following term, starred in a 4-0 League Cup win over Manchester United. Went on to score 24 times in 88 league games for the club.

A NEW SPUR

Joined Spurs in February, 2015, loaned back to MK for the remainder of the season. Made his debut for us on August 8, 2015, away to Manchester United, scoring his first goal two weeks later at Leicester City.

"WE CAN'T LOOK TOO MUCH AT THE TABLE AND WE CAN'T AFFORD TO LOOK AHEAD. WE CAN ONLY CONTROL WHAT'S IN FRONT OF US"

For Dele though, the mantra is always the same.

"We can't look too much at the table and we can't afford to look ahead to the next game," he said. "We can only control what is in front of us and this evening, that is a game against Manchester United.

"We know it's an important time of the season and these games are great opportunities to close the gap on the teams above us, but we're all fighting for the same thing. At the moment, we are just solely focussed on tonight's match and if we win, we would go into the next one with a lot of confidence.

"We're trying to make Wembley feel like home and I think we've done that, it's a tough place for teams to come and we've only lost once here in the league so far this term.

"We've faced teams with different styles this season and against United tonight, it's likely that both teams will go at it with each other so we'll enjoy that challenge, make sure we play as well as we can and look to get the three points."

TOP AWARDS

His sensational goal at Crystal Palace in January, 2016, was voted Goal of the Season and Dele was named PFA Young Player of the Year. Continued his fine form last season, scoring 22 goals in 50 games.

ENGLAND DUTY

Following England youth appearances, his senior debut came as a substitute against Estonia in October, 2015, scoring on his first start against France a month later. Featured for the Three Lions at Euro 2016.

FIFA WORLD CUP RUSSIA 2018

ROAD TO RUSSIA

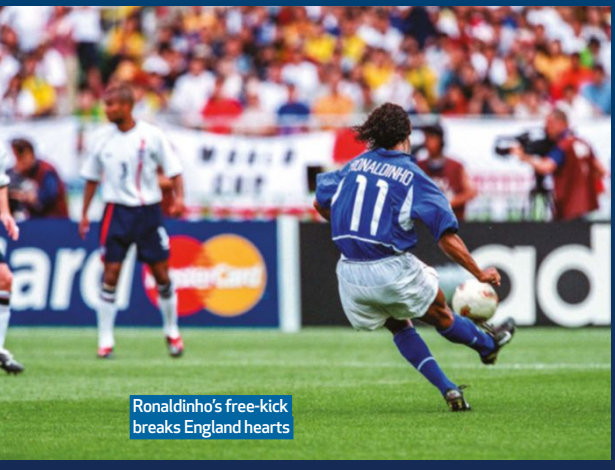
While there's still a lot to focus on at club level, the turn of the year means the countdown to this summer's World Cup in Russia is on! Ahead of the showpiece tournament, BILLY SHAW chats to members of our current squad who have helped their respective nations qualify over the last two years to find out about their memories of past World Cups and their predictions for 2018. The series continues this evening with right-back KIERAN TRIPPIER, who made his England debut last year…

What was the first World Cup you can remember watching?
I can recall the one where Ronaldinho scored the free-kick against England – that must have been 2002. I don't know if he meant it but it was a good goal. It's just a shame that was the goal that knocked England out. That's the moment that sticks in my mind as being my first clear recollection of the World Cup.

Who were the stars that year?
The Brazilian team was phenomenal with obviously Ronaldinho, Roberto Carlos, Rivaldo and Ronaldo – they were fantastic to watch. David Beckham was involved for England and he had always been my idol growing up, so he was another star who comes to mind.

Have you ever been to a World Cup match as a supporter?
Not as a fan but in the youth stages with England I played at the Under-20 World Cup. We went to Egypt in 2009 but were eliminated in the group. It was a useful experience, though, to see how it all works in that intense tournament environment.

Victory here at Wembley in the 1966 final



Ronaldinho's free-kick breaks England hearts

If there was one World Cup game in history that you could have gone to, which one would it be and why?
There's only one isn't there? The final in 1966.

What are the best memories you have of your own country at the World Cup?
I remember watching England have a pretty good group stage in 2006 when it was held in Germany. We beat

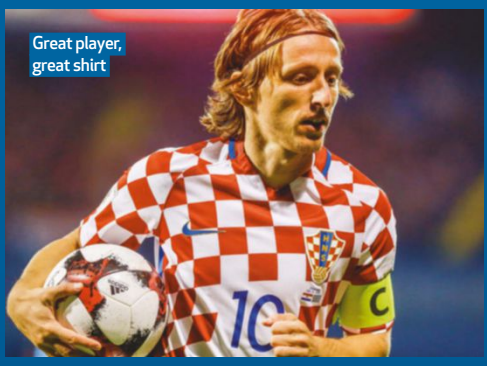
Paraguay to start off with – I seem to remember it was an own goal that won it for us – but then I recall a win against Trinidad and Tobago. Peter Crouch and Steven Gerrard scored quite late in the game and that obviously put England in a great position to qualify. The last game was quite an entertaining draw against Sweden.

What is the best match you've ever seen at the finals?
I've got to say the Uruguay-Ghana one in South Africa 2010 because you had the situation where Luis Suarez handled the ball on the line and the Ghana striker, Asamoah Gyan, missed the penalty which would have put them through. Then it went to penalties and Uruguay won, so basically Suarez saved his team their place in the World Cup by doing what he did. That was a dramatic game, so controversial at the end.

And the best goal?
The James Rodriguez volley at the last World Cup, just before he went to Real Madrid. Colombia beat Uruguay – 2-0, I think it was – and he scored twice, but it was the volley where the ball was headed forward to him, he took it on his chest and hit it on his left foot from about 25 yards. What a strike!

What is the most unusual kit you've seen at the tournament?
I don't know why but I think it has to be the Croatia one with the red and white squares. Sometimes they have a bit of blue in there as well. I don't know why but that patterned design is the one that comes to mind!



Great player, great shirt

Who do you think will make an impact at this year's World Cup?
Obviously I want England to go far and hopefully win the tournament but I'd have to say, through watching Brazil when we played them in the last international break, they were powerful. Even the bench was strong – it was staggering how much power they had in their squad. I think, all-round, France have got an unbelievable team as well. I made my debut against them and they didn't have their strongest side out but they still had a lot of quality so I think France and Brazil could do well.

James Rodriguez hits a beautiful volley

An England debut against Brazil

What's being said

Kyle Walker-Peters, Spurs full-back and Under-20 World Cup winner with England

"It's always nice to see players from Spurs in the England set-up and I look up to players like Trips because I'm in the younger England age groups and I try to look at what he does to help my own game. He fitted straight in when he made his England debut last year. I think it's hard sometimes when you haven't played for England for a while – he obviously came through the youth set-up as well – because in your first game you always need to impress and show why the manager has picked you but he's done it and been excellent in the games he's played. Everybody knows he's probably the best crosser of the ball in the Premier League – it's hard to get a crossing technique like his – and he's got a fantastic range of passing. With his stature as well, he always manages to find a way to come out on top against his winger or his opposing wing-back, always winning his headers. A lot of that is down to intelligence."

REMEMBER WHEN...

...we last played Manchester United on January 31? It was an FA Cup third round replay 50 years ago today, having drawn 2-2 with United at Old Trafford in the initial game. We'd won the trophy the previous May and were handed a tough draw in defence of the trophy, but two goals from Martin Chivers – in reply to strikes from George Best and Bobby Charlton for United – earned us a White Hart Lane replay. It wasn't the best of games in N17, with Desmond Hackett of the Daily Express describing it as a 'soccer shambles'! Both sides were reduced to 10 men in the second half when Joe Kinnear and Brian Kidd were sent off and neither side could break the deadlock in 90 minutes. But 10 minutes into extra time, winger Jimmy Robertson scored the decisive goal to see us through to a fourth-round clash with Preston North End. We lost to Liverpool in a replay in the fifth round.

ON THIS DAY JANUARY 31

WEST BROMWICH ALBION 0-3 SPURS

Three days after securing our place in the Carling Cup Final with a 2-2 draw at Sheffield United, we travelled to the Hawthorns on this day three years ago for a Premier League clash with West Brom. And we made a blistering start, with goals from Christian Eriksen and Harry Kane putting us 2-0 ahead inside 15 minutes. Kane scored a penalty after the break as we ran out easy winners.

SPURS 3-1 WIGAN ATHLETIC

Wigan arrived at the Lane on this day six years ago, having lost 9-1 and won 1-0 on their previous two visits to N17! Two goals in a six-minute spell from Gareth Bale and Luka Modric put us in control at half-time, Bale adding a 64th-minute third before James McArthur scored a late consolation for the Latics. Young striker Cameron Lancaster made his solitary appearance for us off the bench.

1987
SPURS 4-0 CRYSTAL PALACE

En route to our appearance here at Wembley Stadium in the 1987 FA Cup Final, we played Crystal Palace in a fourth-round tie on this day at White Hart Lane. We'd beaten Scunthorpe United in the previous round and eased past Palace thanks to goals from Gary Mabbutt, Clive Allen, Nico Claesen and an own goal from former Spur Gary O'Reilly.

MANAGER:

JOSE MOURINHO

One of world football's most successful managers, Jose Mourinho won eight domestic league titles with Porto, Chelsea, Inter Milan and Real Madrid between 2003 and 2015 while he was also a Champions League winner during his time in Portugal and Italy. Last season was his first as Manchester United boss and he led the Reds Devils to an EFL Cup and Europa League double.

FORM GUIDE:

Having never finished outside the top three in the first 21 Premier League seasons, Manchester United have ended their previous four campaigns in fourth position or lower, but arrive at Wembley leading the chase to catch runaway leaders Manchester City. Beaten only three times in the league all season, they are the only club other than City to have topped the table this term and also remain in contention in the Champions League with a last 16 clash against Sevilla to come next month.

20

POSITION: GOALKEEPER
DATE OF BIRTH: 22.02.87
Understudy to David De Gea at Old Trafford, Romero is Argentina's first-choice goalkeeper and has made 93 appearances for La Albiceleste, playing in the 2014 World Cup final against Germany in Brazil. Formerly with Racing Club and AZ – where he was an Erdevisie winner in 2009, Romero arrived from Sampdoria in 2015 and has played most of his football for United in Europe.

DAVID DE GEA

POSITION: GOALKEEPER
DATE OF BIRTH: 07.11.90
If selected to have played at Yeovil in the FA Cup, De Gea could make his 300th appearance for Manchester United this evening, making him the 58th player in club history to reach the 300-game mark. Signed from Atletico Madrid in 2011, the Spanish international is a three-times Sir Matt Busby Player of the Year winner and leads the race for the 2017-18 Premier League Golden Glove.

VICTOR LINDELOF

POSITION: DEFENDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 17.07.94
Swedish defender Lindelof was just 16 when making his professional debut for hometown club Vasteras SK in 2010. He soon became highly sought after and moved on to Benfica in 2012 where he played for the B-team before breaking into the first-team in 2015. Capped 18 times by Sweden, Jose Mourinho brought him to United in June.

DAVE SAVES

David De Gea has kept 14 clean sheets in the Premier League this term – more than any other goalkeeper in Europe's top five leagues.

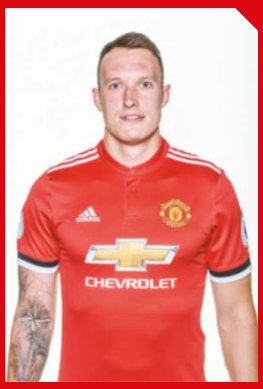
PHIL JONES



POSITION: DEFENDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 21.02.92
Sir Alex Ferguson signed Jones as a teenager from Blackburn Rovers in 2010 and the versatile defender has remained at Old Trafford since, although injuries have restricted his appearances in previous seasons. Capped 24 times by England, 11 of Jones' appearances for the Three Lions have been at Wembley while he was an unused substitute here in the 2016 FA Cup final v Crystal Palace.

POSITION: DEFENDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 20.03.90
La Plata-born Rojo joined his local club Estudiantes LP as a 10-year-old and rose through the ranks to become a first-team player between 2009 and 2010 before signing for Spartak Moscow. A move to Sporting Club de Portugal followed and he joined United in the summer of 2014. An Argentine international, he was named in the 2014 World Cup Team of the Tournament.

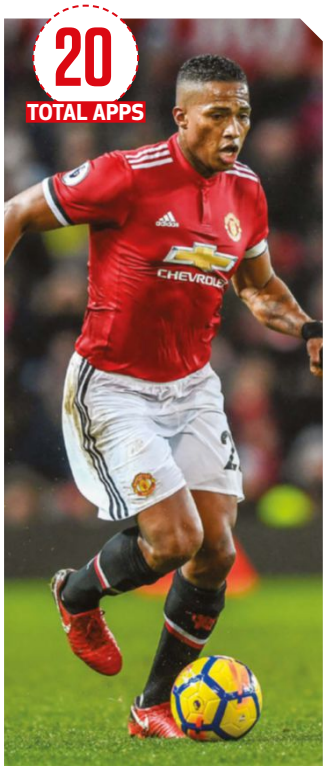
12

CHRIS SMALLING

POSITION: DEFENDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 22.11.89
Fulham spotted Smalling's potential when he was a teenager playing for Maidstone United and he'd made fewer than 20 first-team appearances for the Cottagers when SirAlex Ferguson took him to Old Trafford. The Greenwich-born centre-back has now passed the 250-game mark for the Red Devils while he scored his only England goal here at Wembley against Portugal.

25

ANTONIO VALENCIA



POSITION: DEFENDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 04.08.85
Now in his ninth season as a United player, Valencia has been wearing the captain's armband during Michael Carrick's absence and was skipper during a 0-0 draw at Anfield in October when he made his 300th appearance for the Red Devils. Previously with Wigan Athletic, the Ecuador international is the reigning United Players' Player of the Year and has netted 25 goals during his Reds career.

7 ALEXIS SANCHEZ

POSITION: FORWARD
DATE OF BIRTH: 19.12.88
United clinched the signing of the Chilean international Sanchez from Arsenal last week, and the former Barcelona man will be hoping to make his Reds league debut at Wembley tonight. He scored and was man of the match here in the FA Cup final against Chelsea last May, and was also on the scoresheet here as Arsenal won the same trophy with a 4-0 win against Aston Villa in 2015.

8 JUAN MATA

POSITION: MIDFIELDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 28.04.88
A multiple trophy winner for club and country with Valencia, Chelsea, Manchester United and Spain, Mata has scored over a century of goals during his career including one in the final of Euro 2012 and another in the 2016 FA Cup final here at Wembley. Now in his fifth season at Old Trafford, he also played under Jose Mourinho's management during his time at Stamford Bridge.

31 NEMANJA MATIC

POSITION: MIDFIELDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 01.08.88
Matic missed just 10 out of a possible 114 Premier League games for Chelsea during the past three seasons and he has been an ever-present in the league so far during his first season with Manchester United. The Serbian international midfielder began his career with FC Kosice and had two spells at Stamford Bridge separated by a three-year stint with Benfica where he won a Primeira Liga title in 2014.

14

JESSE LINGARD

POSITION: MIDFIELDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 15.12.92
Wembley has been a happy hunting ground for Lingard so far in his career. The Academy graduate netted the winning goal here in the 2016 FA Cup final versus Crystal Palace, scored in the 2016 Community Shield win against Leicester City and was on target in the 2017 EFL Cup final against Southampton. Lingard has been capped eight times by England.

POSITION: MIDFIELDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 15.03.93
The reported £89.3m transfer fee United paid Juventus for Pogba in 2016 was a world record at the time but he is now the fourth most expensive signing in football after Neymar, Philippe Coutinho and French international team-mate Ousmane Dembele. Pogba appeared seven times during his first spell with United and scored nine goals in 2016-17, including the opener in the Europa League final.

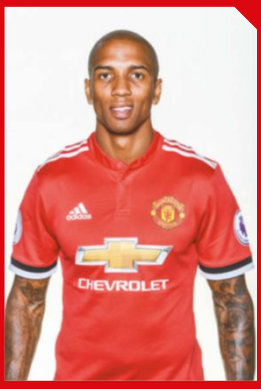
ASHLEY YOUNG



POSITION:
MIDFIELDER/DEFENDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 09.07.85
After four years without an England cap, Young returned to international duty in November as a substitute in England's 0-0 draw against Brazil here at Wembley. Now in his seventh season as a Manchester United player, he's closing in on 200 appearances for the Red Devils having previously spent half-a-decade at Aston Villa after initially starting out with Watford.

TOP POG

Paul Pogba has recorded nine assists in the Premier League this season – the highest number in the United squad and the third highest in the whole division.

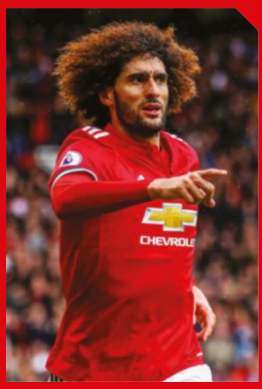
ANDER HERRERA

POSITION: MIDFIELDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 14.08.89
Sir Matt Busby Player of the Year for 2016-17, Herrera moved to Old Trafford from Athletic Bilbao in 2014 and has won the FA Cup, EFL Cup and Europa League so far during his United career. A product of Real Zaragoza's youth system, Herrera was a UEFA European Under-21 Championship winner with Spain in 2011 and has made two appearances for the national team at senior level.

27

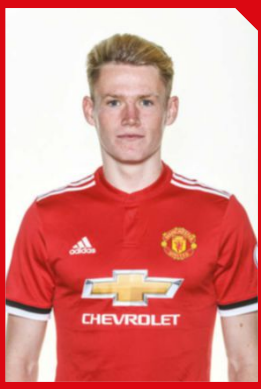
MAROUANE FELLAINI



POSITION: MIDFIELDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 22.11.87
Fellaini made his 100th Premier League appearance for Manchester United against Burnley the weekend before last having moved to Old Trafford from Everton in 2013. He netted 11 goals in 31 league games for the Blues during the last of his five seasons at Goodison Park and has now scored over 60 times in his club career. Fellaini has also appeared for Belgium on 80 occasions.

39

SCOTT McTOMINAY



POSITION: MIDFIELDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 08.12.96
Converted from a striker to a midfielder at United's Academy, McTominay missed a lot of football at youth level due to injuries t but has blossomed into a player who is increasingly being used at first-team level by Jose Mourinho. Eligible to play for England or Scotland at international level, he signed a new long-term contract with the Red Devils in October.

DATE OF BIRTH: 05.12.95
Lyon sold Martial to AS Monaco in 2013 after he'd made just four first-team appearances but he impressed to such an extent at Stade Louis II that Manchester United bought him in 2015. Usually utilised in a wide-left attacking position, Martial has already scored more goals than he did in the whole of 2016-17. He came off the bench to get the winner in our trip to Old Trafford earlier this season.

Rashford has already made more than a century of appearances for United and been capped 15 times by England – impressive totals for a player who only celebrated his 20th birthday in October. In 2016 he became the youngest ever man to represent England in the European Championship, aged 18 years and 229 days old, breaking the record Wayne Rooney set in 2004 by four days.

After failing to score for Chelsea in 15 appearances before netting 17 times during a season-long loan at West Bromwich Albion, Lukaku spent four seasons with Everton and hit the target 87 times in 166 games, prompting Manchester United to pay a reported £75m for him in June. Aged 24, he is also Belgium's all-time leading goalscorer with 31 goals including nine in nine games in 2017.

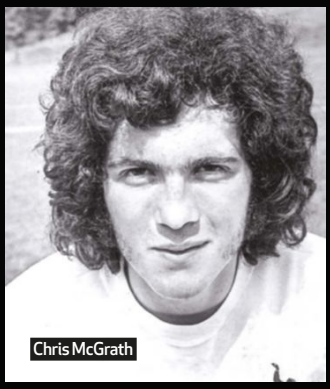
GOLD DUST

LINKING UP WITH TONIGHT'S VISITORS. JOHN FENNELLY RECALLS THE MEN AND MOMENTS FROM OUR SHARED PAST

DOUBLE EDGE

The irony reflected in Chris McGrath's five year spell at Old Trafford is that he played more full games for Northern Ireland than he did for Manchester United in that time.

Maybe he suffered due to his versatility with his ability to play out wide or at the top of a midfield diamond. But there is no doubt that on his day and while leading the line, he was as tough an opponent as any centre-forward.



Chris McGrath

What he needed was a succession of early, accurate crosses and a formation designed to play to his strengths. Because, in that situation, and on a consistent basis, he possessed all the attributes to succeed.

Born in Belfast, Chris excelled in schools football, domestically and internationally, and joined us as an apprentice in July, 1970. He signed as a professional in January, 1972, and faced a tough debut the following year yet played his part in a 2-0 home win over Arsenal. Liam Brady was another debutant that day.

McGrath's style was particularly effective on the European stage when those Glory Nights gave him extra impetus and opportunity. He played in both legs of our 1974 UEFA Cup Final challenge, a performance that was quickly followed by his first senior cap for Northern Ireland.

After 47 first team appearances for us, scoring 10 goals, Chris played on loan for Millwall before a permanent transfer to United in October, 1976. He extended his international caps to 21 and then spent two seasons with American side Tulsa Roughnecks before a stint with Hong Kong.

Triple Measure

Martin Peters (pictured second left) scored all four of our goals when we beat United 4-1 at Old Trafford in October, 1972. Bobby Charlton replied for the home side. Centre-half Matt Dillon made his Spurs debut in that game. The two sides subsequently drew 1-1 at White Hart Lane. We won the League Cup that season.

MAIN ISSUE

The programme for United's visit on February 7, 1914, was our standard eight-page production of the time, printed on soft pink paper that cost one penny.

The cover featured our old mate Cocky Cockerel in the guise of a detective investigating the loss of the FA Cup – we had just been knocked out at Manchester City!

Pages two and four were all small adverts with overcoats, boots, meat, seed, shirts and funeral services all on offer and fans invited to attend the Alcazar, Edmonton, after the game for the "cheapest and best show in England." There was also an army recruitment poster.

United were welcomed thus: "Our visitors have enjoyed a goodly share of honours in the last few years...and, despite their bad spell since the New Year, still possess a reasonable chance of heading the list next April.

"There is no more popular forward in England than the ever-green Willie (Billy) Meredith...a truly great player who is going grey in the game's service."

Front Page

The year 1914 also saw Britain declare war on Germany and the first air raid on London. The successful treatment of cancer with radium was achieved at Middlesex hospital. Tax now began at 4d in the £1 on £1,000 income

Suffragette leader Emmeline Pankhurst (pictured) was arrested as she tried to present a petition at Buckingham Palace.

'The Merchant of Venice', directed and starring Phillips Smalley, was on at the cinema while American vocal group Peerless Quartet topped the charts with 'Oh You Million Dollar Doll.'

LOCAL HERO

Jimmy Banks made his Spurs debut when we entertained United at the Lane in February, 1914. We won 2-1 with Billy Minter and Jimmy Cantrell on target. England international George Wall replied.

United, who had beaten us 3-1 at Old Trafford in the October, finished 14th in Division One with Spurs two places below them and just above the relegation zone. We would go down the following season when United survived by one point.

Banks was born in Ashington, County Durham, and was spotted by Spurs playing in local football, moving south to White Hart Lane in December, 1913. An inside-forward at a time when we were well served in that position, his versatility often won him a first-team place but not with the consistency he would have wanted.

Although he joined the services at the outbreak of World War One, he was based on the home front so continued to play regularly for us.

He subsequently played his part in our promotion team of 1919-20 and again when we won the FA Cup a year later.

Jimmy also represented Norwich City and Luton Town, later working as a London bus driver.

Harry's brace against Everton saw him break Teddy's record

TEDDY'S DELIGHT AT HARRY'S RECORD

Teddy Sheringham knew.

He told us back in August, 2015, that Harry Kane reminded him of his former strike partner and Spurs icon Jurgen Klinsmann.

At the end of Harry's breakthrough season in 2015-16, Teddy said the centre-forward 'had everything'.

And then this time last year, the former Spurs and Manchester United frontman described Harry as 'a class act' after he had scored a hat-trick in our FA Cup win at Fulham.

Now it's gone full circle with Harry, still only 24, surpassing Teddy on two counts in the last fortnight – first, his goals against AFC Wimbledon in the FA Cup took him past Teddy's 124 goals in all competitions for the club, and up to ninth on our all-time list.

Then Harry's two goals against Everton here at Wembley recently took him past Teddy's 97 goals in the Premier League, setting a new club record.

"He's special, isn't he?" said Teddy, who was manager of Indian Super League side ATK until just recently.

"I've spoken about him a lot of the last few years and I'm delighted it's Harry who has broken my record.

"He's a great lad and he wants to get better and better, even now. He's at the top of his profession but he still wants to learn. He's got the perfect manager and he's playing for the club at the perfect time."

Teddy scored over 350 goals in his club career spanning 25 years – 1983 to 2008. He knows the game inside-out and has noted how Harry is scoring 'all sorts of goals', particularly a couple of 'scruffy' ones against Everton.

"Harry scores from long distance, close range, curlers, headers…but you have to score your scrappy goals as well," added Teddy.

"The two goals he scored against Everton to break the record epitomised that, getting into the six-yard box and scoring the tap-ins.

"The glory goals can soon dry up when you are having a tricky spell but if you keep scoring the tap-ins, they keep up the ratio, and that's what you've got to do."

Rayan Clarke wraps up the win against Bournemouth

CHERRIES PIPPED AS LADS LINE UP CUP DERBY

A brace from Under-18s top scorer Reo Griffiths and a stoppage-time strike from Rayan Clarke secured a safe passage at AFC Bournemouth in the FA Youth Cup and booked a fifth round home tie against Chelsea.

We dominated the early exchanges before Bournemouth grew into the game and caused us a few problems, Jonathan De Bie gathering well on a couple of occasions. Our left-back Jamie Reynolds didn't quite catch his half-volley properly but still coaxed a save from Will Dennis on 42 minutes before the opener finally arrived two minutes later.

It needed a moment of intelligence to open up the Cherries as a well-worked move from the corner flag on the left saw Phoenix Patterson burst in along the byline and drill into the mix, where Griffiths turned home at the near post, his 13th goal of the season.

Griffiths pounced on some hesitant defending to double his tally 11 minutes after the break – and technically he got the assist as well! Flicking on Brooklyn Lyons-Foster's long clearance, the striker stayed alert and when nobody in red and black went to the ball, he simply ran back onto it and drilled low into the bottom corner.

Paris Maghoma curled a 70th minute free-kick over the wall but rattled the crossbar before firing over from distance as we looked to extend our advantage, so nearly doing just that six minutes from time when Tashan Oakley-Boothe rounded the keeper and clipped towards the empty net, Brennan Camp somehow getting back to clear off the line.

The third goal duly arrived in the dying embers of the contest when Clarke – on moments earlier for his FA Youth Cup bow – swept home from close range after Dennis had parried Maghoma's effort.

"Obviously they set up very well and made it hard for us so credit to them," said coach Scott Parker. "I think we knew that before the game, we spoke to the lads about being patient, trying to work the ball and maybe in the later stages of the game it would open up but I think the goal, even against the run of play a little bit, was quite pleasing because 0-0 at half-time would have been a fair scoreline.

"The goals came at such a good time for us and we built on that," he added. "We looked strong and comfortable but at 1-0 you always look a little bit vulnerable so to get another clean sheet was pleasing."

Spurs: De Bie (c), Hinds, Reynolds, Skipp, Lyons-Foster, Eyoma, Richards (Clarke 84), P Maghoma, Griffiths, Patterson (Bowden 90+1), Bennett (Oakley-Boothe 64). Substitutes (not used): Oluwayemi, Markanday.

PHOENIX FIRES YOUNGSTERS TO VICTORY

Our youngsters were the toast of the south coast for the second time in four days as they hit Brighton & Hove Albion for six in the Under-18 Premier League, with Phoenix Patterson netting a hat-trick.

After seeing off AFC Bournemouth in the FA Youth Cup, Scott Parker's young side took full advantage of their numerous chances to rack up a 6-3 victory at the Seagulls' Amex Elite Football Performance Centre on Saturday.

Rodel Richards gave us an 18th-minute lead from a tight angle on the left, but Brighton replied four minutes later with a fine strike, Ryan Longman curling inside the far post on his right foot from just outside the area.

However, Phoenix Patterson produced an even more spectacular effort on the half-hour mark when he curled a free-kick up and over the wall and into the top corner, the first of his treble on the day.

We allowed the home side back into the game once more when Stefan Ljubicic levelled on 39 minutes but two sharp finishes from Reo Griffiths in the 50th and 59th minutes effectively put the game beyond Brighton soon afterwards.

Griffiths looked on for his hat-trick three minutes later but Tom McGill repelled his effort into the path of Patterson, who gratefully hammered home his second.

Longman found another response for Brighton on 69 minutes as he stepped through our defence to convert while Ljubicic missed an open goal as the home side threatened a comeback.

But Patterson had the final say when he was first to another McGill parry from Griffiths' effort to complete his hat-trick 12 minutes from time.

"We played some really lovely stuff, moved the ball really well but the only disappointing side of it was a couple of sloppy goals conceded on our behalf," said Scott Parker. "Overall, though, it was a pleasing and positive result.

Spurs: Austin (c), Statham, Reynolds, Hinds, Dinzeyi (Lock 63), Lyons-Foster, Mukendi (Okedina 83), A Shashoua, Griffiths (Thorpe 83), Patterson, Richards. Substitute (not used): Lo-Tutala.

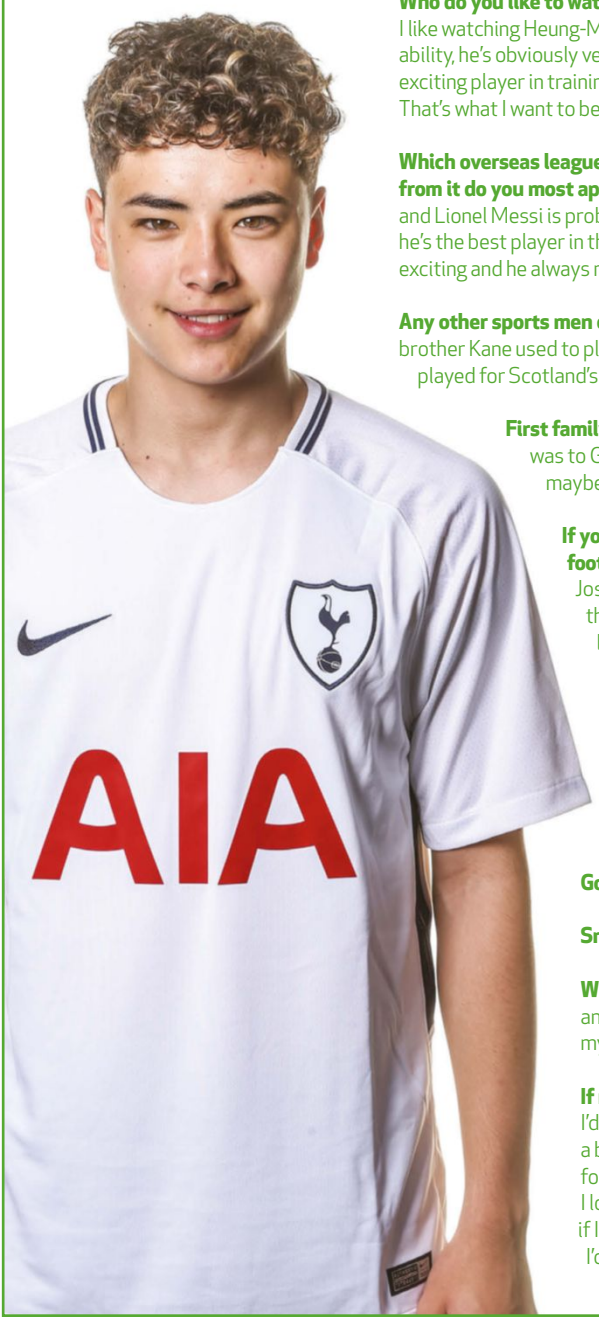
ACADEMY PROFILE:
PHOENIX PATTERSON (ATTACKING MIDFIELDER)



Born: September 1, 2000, at High Wycombe.

Last school: John Hampden Grammar School in High Wycombe.

When did you first start training for Spurs? With the Under-8s.

Who do you like to watch in training in our first team and why? I like watching Heung-Min Son. He's so sharp with great ball-striking ability, he's obviously very good at scoring goals and he's quite an exciting player in training and in games because he takes people on. That's what I want to be able to do as well.

Which overseas league do you follow closest and which players from it do you most appreciate? I watch a bit of the Spanish league and Lionel Messi is probably the one I follow most because I think he's the best player in the world. Every time you watch him, he's exciting and he always makes things happen on the pitch.

Any other sports men or women in your family? My younger brother Kane used to play for our Academy. He's a full-back and he's played for Scotland's youth teams.

First family holiday? The first one I can remember was to Gran Canaria. I would have been very young, maybe five.

If you could meet anyone famous outside of football, who would it be and why? Anthony Joshua. I like his approach, his enthusiasm and the way he works so hard to be successful. I'd love to go and see one of his fights live one day, just to experience that energy that he brings to boxing.

Which social media platform do you use most? Snapchat.

FIFA or Call of Duty? FIFA.

Golf or shopping? Shopping.

Smart or casual? Casual.

What do you do to chill out on a day off? Go and meet my mates, watch movies or play on my PS4. I like action films like Fast and Furious.

If not a footballer what would you like to be? I'd like to go into tennis because I used to play a bit when I was younger. I had to pick between football and tennis but chose football because I love the game and I could never give it up, but if I couldn't be a footballer for whatever reason I'd like to go back to tennis.

LATE STRIKE PROVES COSTLY AS LADS EXIT CUP

Our Under-23s were in the driving seat against Benfica last Thursday, but substitute Nuno Santos' equaliser 12 minutes from time ultimately ended our involvement in the Premier League International Cup.

A win for either side would have secured automatic progress to the next stage of the competition, but the result meant we were relying on a draw between Bayern Munich and Porto in order to go through from second place in Group F as one of the two best runners-up.

However, the Portuguese side edged that contest 1-0 to take their place in the next round and leave us contemplating what might have been.

Our game was hastily re-arranged to take place at Hotspur Way after being postponed on Wednesday night due to a waterlogged pitch at Stevenage and it was Benfica – who included ex-Arsenal player Chris Willock among their number – who took the lead against the run of play as Jose Gomes sent the ball into the danger zone from the right flank and Joao Sequeira was on hand to convert at the far post.

We levelled six minutes before the break when Shilow Tracey exchanged passes with Shayon Harrison before firing in from the right side of the box, his effort taking a slight touch off goalkeeper Ivan Zlobin on its way in.

The Portuguese outfit made a quick start to the second half and regained the lead 27 seconds after the restart when Heriberto Tavares advanced towards the box and lashed past Brandon Austin from 20 yards.

After scoring on his first league start of the season against Everton last week, Jack Roles once again brought us back level in short order. Tracey picked up the ball out on the right and found the midfielder in a pocket of space in Benfica's area, with Roles taking a touch before firing into the gaping net.

We finally had the lead we deserved on 50 minutes. Roles sent the ball in from the right, Kazaiah Sterling's close-range effort was somehow clawed out from underneath the bar by Zlobin but Anton Walkes spotted his opportunity, striding onto the ball and crashing it into the top corner.

There was a golden chance to extend our lead shortly before the hour mark but Tracey steered his free header from Roles' corner straight at Zlobin and Walkes could only divert the rebound across goal and wide of the far post.

Benfica levelled the scores 12 minutes from time when, after substitute George Marsh was adjudged to have handled in the left-back position, skipper Pedro Amaral sent the free-kick across the edge of the box and, after nobody got a touch, it fell at the feet of Santos, who sent the ball spinning through the congested area and into the bottom corner.

Luke Amos and Chris Willock tussle for the ball

"We showed good endeavour, scored three good goals but we gave away goals that were needless," said coach Wayne Burnett. "For effort and commitment we were very good, it's just disappointing after being in front towards the end that we conceded the third goal but we showed real spirit, effort, commitment and desire to come back twice from being behind."

PREMIER LEAGUE 2 • HOTSPUR WAY • MONDAY, JANUARY 22

LADS COME UNSTUCK IN TOFFEES TEST

Our Under-23s were unable to hold onto their second half lead against Everton last Monday afternoon, conceding twice in the final 20 minutes to slip to defeat at Hotspur Way.

Having seen the visitors enjoy the better of an uneventful first half played in teaming rain, we took a deserved lead following a much more positive start to the second period when Jack Roles fired us ahead on 68 minutes. Anton Walkes – making his first appearance for us since returning from his successful loan spell with MLS outfit Atlanta United for their 2017 season – found substitute Joe Pritchard who laid a ball in to Roles, his fine right-foot finish beating Mateusz Hewelt in the Everton goal.

It looked like we might be on for our first win in the division since beating Arsenal at home in October six games ago, but Everton levelled things up just three minutes later when Fraser Hornby picked up the ball in midfield and threaded an incisive pass to Antony Evans who beat Alfie Whiteman to the ball and slotted home from 15 yards.

It got worse nine minutes later when we fell behind, that man Evans again doing the damage. He received the ball 20 yards from goal and delivered a left-foot drive which curled past Whiteman and found the bottom corner.

We did have an opportunity to level the game up in the 83rd minute when Roles played in substitute Anthony Georgiou down the left, his cross deflected up for Roles to flick a header towards the far corner but Everton skipper Morgan Feeney was on hand to clear his lines and with it, our hopes of salvaging a draw.

"IT WAS A COMPETITIVE GAME AND WE CAME OUT AFTER THE BREAK AND DOMINATED FOR THE FIRST 20 MINUTES" out after the break and dominated for the first 20 minutes," said coach Wayne Burnett. "We managed to score a well-worked goal but then we didn't defend properly and before we knew it, Everton had equalised and we then conceded again quickly after that.

"We had to gather some composure after they equalised and get back to what we were doing, get some structure in our play and be calm, and we weren't at times. It was disappointing to lose after going in front but we'll look back at it and learn very quickly because we need to start winning matches."

BELIEF THE KEY AS LADIES LOSE AGAIN

Karen Hills is calling on Spurs Ladies to believe in themselves as they aim to break their toughest spell so far in the Women's Super League.

Promoted to WSL 2 last season, we made a bright start in both league and WSL Continental Cup competitions but have now lost five on the trot following last Sunday's reverse at Millwall.

However, there are no alarm bells ringing, as the team still sit mid-table in WSL 2 with 11 of 18 matches to go.

If anything, it's the opposite with manager Karen feeling that her players deserve more for their recent performances.

That was the case again despite a 4-1 final scoreline against the Lionesses as we were in the running for a win before Millwall forged ahead 2-1 on 72 minutes and went on to add two more in the latter stages.

"We're playing well but we know at this level we have to take advantage when we're having the better of matches," said Karen.

"We deserved our equaliser after conceding early and I was really impressed with how we clawed ourselves back into the game.

"We had chances after that so it was so disappointing how the game panned out. We deserved more.

"Now it's all about belief. We're playing well and we have to convert those performances into positive results. I'm confident we'll do that."

Millwall took an early lead at St

Sarah Wiltshire looks to break clear against Millwall

Paul's Sports Ground, home of Fisher FC, when Amber Gaylor met Billie Brooks' deep free-kick with a header with just four minutes on the clock.

Despite conceding early, we gathered momentum and Wendy Martin, Coral-Jade Haines and Sarah Wiltshire all had efforts at goal with Haines and Wiltshire both denied again inside the opening half-hour.

Martin almost connected with Lucia Leon's cross and Millwall goalkeeper Sarah Quantrill palmed away Renee Hector's header and Wiltshire's free-kick before the break.

Our pressure paid dividends in the 54th minute though. Haines' perfectly-weighted pass dropped to Wiltshire drifting into the area and she fired into the far corner to equalise.

The same player came close to a second eight minutes later, firing just wide.

Millwall responded as Ashlee Hincks struck the crossbar from a free-kick and on 72 minutes, the hosts regained the lead. Charlie Devlin, with time on the edge of the area, found the top corner.

Sophie Mclean almost levelled again but Millwall forged a two-goal lead on 83 minutes when Hincks' cross was converted by Devlin.

Hincks then completed the scoring in stoppage time.

George Hunt was a rough, rumbustious 20-year-old known as the "Chesterfield Tough" who had scored nine goals in 14 games for Chesterfield in his one season of professional football before arriving at White Hart Lane.

He was signed by manager Percy Smith as one for the future and he arrived in June, 1930, for a fee of £1,000.

Hunt was a player who knew his own worth. He had refused to sign for Barnsley, Sheffield United or Port Vale because they were not prepared to offer the money he thought he merited. We had no such problem, Hunt even accepting he could not expect a first team place immediately. He was being signed because he had potential that we could work on.

Hunt made his Spurs' debut earlier than anyone expected, stepping in at the last minute against Stoke City when Ted Harper was ruled out by injury, acquitting himself reasonably well despite a lack of experience.

Back with the reserves, Hunt proved himself a prolific scorer if not the most accomplished of players. As the 1930-31 season approached its climax with us in the Division Two promotion scrap, Hunt was called upon when Harper was injured again.

He opened his account for us in a 2-2 draw against Cardiff City in N17 and went on to score five goals in eight games, but he failed to have the impact up front that we had with Harper and six games without a win left us just outside the promotion places come the end of the season.

Smith, though, had seen enough to realise Hunt was the player he could build a team around. While Harper began the following campaign, a 0-4 defeat at Wolverhampton Wanderers on the opening day showed injuries had deprived him of all confidence.

Hunt was recalled and as the team began to play to his strengths, so the goals began to flow. At 5ft 8ins he was far from the biggest of players but he had no fear and was quite happy to throw his 10 and a half stone of solid muscle into the toughest of challenges, often showing a total disregard for his own safety if there was the sniff of a goal. Tenacious, a glutton for hard work for every minute of the game, he continually harried and chased defenders, often overstepping the mark with his challenges but prepared to accept the retribution without complaint.

In the 1932-33 season, Hunt banged in 33 goals as the team dubbed "The Greyhounds" at last secured promotion and his exploits in front of goal were enough to see him win three England caps.

George Hunt in action against Arsenal

Back in the top flight, Hunt scored 32 goals as we secured third place, our best league position for years and the second of his double against Manchester City at the Lane in April, 1934, took him to the 100 mark in terms of league goals.

But in 1934-35 the punishment he and opponents had inflicted on his body began to take its toll. Slowing noticeably, he was unable to save us from relegation and with injuries continually leaving him on the sidelines, he found his place taken by Johnny Morrison.

Still a hero to supporters who remembered him at his best, he appeared to be returning to something like his old form as he recovered from a cartilage operation early in 1936-37. We were reported to have turned down several offers for him when it was suddenly announced Hunt was joining Arsenal as replacement for Ted Drake.

It was not a popular decision at the time but over 80 years later, he's still fondly remembered as the sixth greatest goalscorers in our history, with 138 goals in 198 appearances.

MAURICIO INSPIRING TOTTENHAM YOUNGSTERS TO PURSUE CAREERS IN COACHING

Mauricio Pochettino has launched a new programme with the Tottenham Hotspur Foundation aimed at training youngsters within the club's local community who have a passion for coaching.

'Passion 4 Coaching' sees 16-24 year olds with a desire to become football coaches recruited through the Foundation's existing outreach work and taken on a training course covering safeguarding, delivering effective coaching drills, equalities and inclusion.

The new project is being set up and funded through the proceeds of the sales of Brave New World – a recent book that provides a first-person snapshot of a season at Spurs under Pochettino.

Passion 4 Coaching will see the Argentinian, our manager since 2014, share his expertise and methods with the Tottenham Hotspur Foundation coaches delivering this unique scheme.

Graduates from the programme will then be given the opportunity to work within the club's Global Coaching programme that educates young players at all levels, both at home and overseas, through methods developed within the Tottenham Hotspur Academy.

It forms part of the club's wider work to create employment opportunities for local people living within its community. Through the ongoing new stadium development scheme and sport-led regeneration of the area, 1,193 new jobs have been delivered across a range of industries, including retail, education, construction, hospitality, IT and security, with all going to local people.

Mauricio said: "Coaching has been my passion ever since my playing career was over and I know that there are many young local people who share that passion and are just waiting for the opportunity.

"It is important for me to be able to work with the club and its Foundation to provide that opportunity through Passion 4 Coaching – a project that we hope will change the lives of those taking part.

"Through our Global Coaching programme, there are many pathways that exist for young coaches to build on their passion and be able to develop their knowledge and skills through the club's outreach work, so I am extremely excited to be involved in this."

Passion 4 Coaching was launched last week during a session of Tottenham Hotspur Kicks held at Duke's Aldridge Academy in the shadow of our new stadium development.

Kicks has been delivered by the club for over a decade, providing young people living on some of the area's toughest housing estates and at high risk of becoming involved in gangs with the opportunity to take part in free multi-sports activity delivered by the Tottenham Hotspur Foundation. It is an example of the projects through which Passion 4 Coaching participants will be recruited.

Mauricio, along with his first team coaching staff, offered advice and guidance to those taking part in the event.

During the course, participants will be given the opportunity to visit our Training Centre to observe first team and Academy sessions before putting their skills into practice.

Richard Allicock, Community Development Manager, Tottenham Hotspur Foundation, said: "Passion 4 Coaching represents a huge opportunity for young people from our local community who have an ambition to become a football coach.

"Mauricio's support is invaluable to our staff that will be delivering the programme and he sets an example to any budding young coach hoping to pursue this as a career."

Funding boost for Foundation

The Tottenham Hotspur Foundation is excited to announce that the People's Postcode Lottery has confirmed it will be awarding them with £750,000 in funding for the coming year. This will help the Foundation to continue providing life-changing opportunities for people in the local area.

Nikki Kelly, Acting CEO, Tottenham Hotspur Foundation, said: "The support of the PPL makes such a difference to all of us here at the Foundation, enabling us to develop sustainable, innovative and ground breaking projects within our local communities, and this year will support us to work with an even greater number of people through our new employment hub Percy House – the gateway to employment opportunities within the new stadium and beyond."

Stephanie Kerr, Sport, Culture and Inclusion Programmes Advisor at the People's Postcode Lottery, will present the Tottenham Hotspur Foundation with the cheque this evening at half-time.

OBITUARIES

We were sorry to hear of the passing of the following Spurs supporters:

KENNETH CHARLES PECK, who sadly passed away on December 23 in Chichester, at the age of 78. A keen football fan and a Spurs supporter since a young lad, his grandson has inherited his love of Spurs.

MICK PRESTIDGE, a lifelong Spurs fan, who sadly passed away far too young on December 14.

Lifelong Spurs fan JOHN McGURK, originally from Stamford Hill, who passed away last week from cancer and will be sadly missed by family and friends.

ANTHONY JOHN DEFENDI, a Spurs fan throughout his life whose favourite players were Jimmy Greaves, Glenn Hoddle and Harry Kane, who passed away on December 23, aged 63. He will be greatly missed by his family and friends.

We would like to extend our condolences to their families and friends at this sad time.

HALF-TERM PLAYER DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMMES FAST APPROACHING

With February half-term around the corner, secure a place today for your young player on one of our Global Coaching Player Development Programmes. The courses will run from Monday-Friday, February 12-16, across Essex, Hertfordshire and North London.

Our player development syllabus has been created by our Academy staff, focusing on every aspect of the game including goal scoring, defending, possession and domination.

Our FA and UEFA-qualified coaches focus each session on a specific element of the game and use inspiration from our current first team and Academy to aid the development of all young players present on the programme.

A professional and structured environment is created to allow all players to demonstrate flair and individualism.

Young players will have the opportunity to develop technically within similar training sessions that the likes of Harry Kane, Harry Winks and Kyle Walker-Peters have experienced.

Each player will be individually monitored by the Global Coaching team to ensure they train with players of similar abilities and ages, with the overall aim to progress every player through the ability levels.

We also have our scouting network in operation at all venues.

To book and to find out more information, please visit

BEN DAVIES

Welsh international Ben Davies will make the 200th appearance of his club career should he feature in tonight's game. The full-back played 85 games for Swansea City and has appeared 114 times for us, scoring a combined seven goals.

MICHEL VORM

Our 1-1 draw at Southampton 10 days ago was a milestone match for Michel Vorm as it marked his 100th Premier League appearance. Signed from Swansea City, the Dutch goalkeeper played 89 times in the division for the Swans and has now featured 11 times for us.

SPURS AGAINST DISCRIMINATION

We do not tolerate discrimination of any sort at the Club, on the pitch or in the stands. If you experience any form of discrimination, help us to eliminate it from football by reporting it.

If you experience anti-social behaviour close to you, please send a text to 87474 with: FOUL (language & behaviour); RACISM (Racist chanting & shouting); HPH (Homophobic chanting); DRINK (Drinking alcohol in view of the pitch); SMOKE (Smoking in the stadium); STAND (Standing up); PYRO (use of or intended use of any pyrotechnic or smoke bomb), along with your location and the location of the offence – Block, Row, Seat. Foul, abusive and racist language will not be tolerated in this Stadium, but should you experience any of these and wish to report it, you can do so by texting the Control Room on the above number.

You do not have to put up with mindless supporters who are intent on ruining your day with us, so use the system, report the individuals and let us take it from there.

NO SWEARING IN THE STADIUM

We would like to remind all supporters that swearing is not permitted anywhere at Wembley Stadium.

NO SMOKING WITHIN THE STADIUM

We would like to remind all supporters that smoking – including e-cigarettes – is not permitted anywhere at Wembley Stadium.

PLEASE REMAIN SEATED

Please remain in your seats during play to ensure that the view is not obstructed for other spectators.

Help Noah's Ark build the children's hospice North London desperately needs

Tottenham Hotspur's First Team players have given an hour to build The Ark. Will you?

Donating just an hour of your salary will help Noah's Ark build North London's only children's hospice building and support more than 1,200 babies, children and young people with life-limiting or life-threatening conditions.

The Ark will complement our existing Hospice-at-Home services, providing 24-hour end-of-life, post-death and bereavement care, overnight stays and sensory, music and art rooms.

WEMBLEY MEMORIES

Each matchday, Andy Greeves speaks to a former Spurs player about their memories of Wembley Stadium during their career. This evening, Les Ferdinand looks back on his appearances for club and country at the 'Venue of Legends'

Prior to the start of his 19-year career as a professional footballer, Les Ferdinand got the chance to play at Wembley Stadium for non-league side Southall. The occasion was the FA Vase Final of April 26, 1986, as he started in his side's 3-0 defeat to Halesowen Town.

"As a kid, I had grown up watching the FA Cup Final on television each year," says Les, who was a 19-year-old painter and decorator at the time of his Wembley debut. "The build-up would always follow the two teams around, from them having their breakfast to leaving the hotel and traveling to Wembley on the coach. Having become so used to seeing the journey that players went on during a cup final day on television, it was surreal to be doing that myself as a non-league player.

"In the changing room before the match, I'll never forget the words of our manager Gordon Bartlett. He said, 'you have done well to get here, so enjoy every minute. One of you in here might have the opportunity to play here again but others of you won't.' To a man, we all looked around the changing room, thinking who might possibly be back at Wembley one day, to play in another FA Vase or FA Trophy Final perhaps. Even though we had some good players in that dressing room, I don’t think any of us thought one of us would return there as a professional footballer and certainly not as an England international!”

But for Ferdinand, that was exactly what happened when the then-Queens Park Rangers striker made his England debut on February 17, 1993, starting for the Three Lions against San Marino here at Wembley.

“Pre-match, I was sat in exactly the same changing room as I had been with Southall,” smiles Les, who went on to score in a 6-0 victory. “I thought back to Gordon Barlett’s words as I sat there next to players like Paul Gascoigne, John Barnes and David Platt.

“When you come into the professional game, you want to get to the highest level possible and for me, that’s representing your country. It was such an honour for my debut to come at Wembley, which has always been the home of football for me. It’s funny, because I had got to where I had wanted to get in my career that night playing for England. But as soon as I arrived at Wembley my thoughts were 'I have to make sure this isn't my one and only international appearance'.

"So rather than enjoying the occasion of my England debut, I was focusing on playing for them all over again. The bar had been raised!"

Ferdinand would indeed represent his country again, scoring five times in 17 international appearances between 1993 and 1998. Three of his five strikes for England came at Wembley Stadium. In addition to his debut effort against San Marino, he also scored here in a 3-0 victory over Poland later that year and got the only goal of the game in a friendly against Bulgaria in the run-up to Euro '96.

Les got 29 goals in 44 appearances for new club Newcastle United during 1995-96, to secure his place in Terry Venables' 22-man squad for the European Championship.

Frustratingly though for the Paddington-born forward, he never got to take to the Wembley pitch during the tournament, when hosts England played all of their matches here up to and including the semi-final.

"I remember prior to Euro '96, it seemed like the country was in a funny place," remembers Ferdinand. "It was almost as if the tournament galvanised the whole county and it brought everyone together. Things like the Baddiel and Skinner song 'Three Lions' brought a real, feelgood factor as did the performances of the team of course.

"Euro '96 was a huge personal disappointment for me though. I had finished as PFA Player the Year that season but I never got to play a single minute. I remember some fans shouting to Terry Venables to put me on as a substitute in the semi-final against Germany, but he crossed his arms and, with that, I knew with that my opportunity of playing had gone."

After the tournament, Ferdinand returned to the 'Home of Football' that August, starting for Newcastle in their FA Charity Shield match with Manchester United at the start of his final season with the Magpies. A year later, the Londoner got to sign for his boyhood club by putting pen-to-paper on an initial four-year contract with us.

"I came close to signing for Spurs before I went to Newcastle in 1995," says Les, who went on to score 39 goals in 149 competitive matches for us through until 2003. "Spurs didn't make an offer (to QPR) until I'd already spoken to Newcastle manager Kevin Keegan and shaken hands on a deal. I remember saying to Alan Sugar at the time that once I've shaken hands on a move, that's it.

"To have the chance to sign for Tottenham a few years later though – the team I supported as a boy – is proof that dreams do come true."

During his time with us, Ferdinand got his hands on his first piece of silverware in English football, having previously won the Turkish Cup with Beşiktaş in 1989. Ten years on, he was a League Cup winner, as we beat Leicester City 1-0 in the final of the competition here on March 21, 1999.

"Whenever I had a big match ahead during my career, there was always the tendency to play the game over and over in my head before I'd even played it," reflects Ferdinand, who is currently Director of Football at former club QPR. "You think about what you want to do and how you're going to do it. You fatigue yourself with these thoughts. I think that's what a lot of us did before that final and as a result, it wasn't a particularly free-flowing game.

"What matters on those big occasions though is winning and we managed to do just that. We really dug in after Justin Edinburgh had been sent off to ensure we got the result. I remember the goal, playing the ball down the right-hand side for Steffen Iversen to cross. Allan Nielsen managed to get to the ball first and head it into the back of the Leicester net.

"Going up the steps to collect our medals was a very special moment. I grew up watching the FA Cup Final as I say and it was incredible following in the footsteps of those winning teams to get our League Cup medals."
